

Keanna is a Doctor of Physical Therapy in rural Kansas, serving the geriatric population and one school district. Keanna received her DPT in 2020 from the University of Saint Mary. Prior to receiving her DPT, she worked as a PTA in various settings and states. She became involved with APTA Kansas as a DPT student, serving as the chairperson for the student SIG in 2019. Keanna enjoys all things outdoors involving hiking or running, especially ultramarathon distances.