

Hannah Sowers, PT, DPT

Hannah Sowers was born and raised in Dodge City, KS. She earned her Bachelor of Science from the University of Sioux Falls in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. She graduated with her Doctorate of Physical Therapy from the University of Saint Mary in December of 2023. As a DPT student and a newer clinician, Hannah has been heavily involved with the American Physical Therapy Association in the state of Kansas, which includes serving as the Vice Chairperson for the APTA KS Student Special Interest Group, serving as a mentee and mentor in the APTA KS Scholars Program, serving as the 2023 APTA KS Student Council Representative, and currently serving as the APTA KS Membership Chair. Hannah currently works as a physical therapist in the inpatient rehabilitation setting at Saint Luke's Rehabilitation Institute in Overland Park, KS. Her clinical interests include adult neurological rehab.