

Daniel Larson Bio (Programming) Danny Larson completed his B.S. in Athletic Training at South Dakota State University in 2015 and his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree at Des Moines University in 2018. Following this, he completed Sports Residency training at Gundersen Health System in La Crosse, Wisconsin and achieved board certification as a Sports Certified Specialist (SCS) through the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties. He also is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He currently works in Lawrence, KS at Lawrence Memorial Hospital (LMH). He has a particular interest in treating athletes involved in field and court sports. In addition to providing patient care, he leads research efforts for the physical therapy department LMH with emphasis on return-to-sport testing and decision making. He will serve as LMH's Sports Residency Coordinator for the residency program that is currently in development. He is actively involved with American Academy of Sports Physical Therapy (AASPT) and completes research reviews for the Sports Performance Enhancement Special Interest Group. He currently serves on the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) - Kansas Chapter Board of Directors as the Programming Chair.