

Chris has been a practicing clinician for over twenty-five years. He has been the Chief Executive Officer of a Federally Qualified Health Center and a Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE). He teaches Blood Flow Restriction and Exercise as Medicine at Wichita State University, where he is also involved in human subject research as a co-Principal Investigator. He has developed and deployed risk management software for PACE organizations and has presented on using Data Envelopment Analysis for quantifying patient risk at the Society for Healthcare Systems.